

A vibrant, abstract graphic for a Holiday Inn campaign. The background is a dark green. In the center is a large, yellow, teardrop-shaped object with a textured, sparkly surface and white lines radiating from its top, resembling a giant lollipop. To the right is a blue, triangular shape with a textured surface, topped with a yellow four-pointed star and surrounded by red and pink lines radiating outwards. The left side features blue and pink circular and star-shaped patterns. The overall theme is festive and celebratory.
