History of the Awards

The idea of holding Brentwood's own Business Awards to celebrate local achievements was born out of an informal discussion at one of our monthly Business Breakfasts.

Paul Gulley had just joined the Chamber's Executive Committee and had been a judge for the Essex Business Awards so was the obvious choice to take this concept forward. We formed a small team from the Executive Committee members, Paul Gulley (Handelsbanken), Steve Ackroyd (Metro Bank) and Laurie Edmonds (who was then running her own media consultancy). They met in the Spread Eagle pub and formulated a concept and format for the awards including 8 categories.

After producing a budget, they started the process of obtaining business partners and sponsors for the 'new' and as yet 'untested' 2017 'Business Awards'. They managed to secure the support and services of Phoenix FM as the media partner and then signed up eight category sponsors from the local business community – quite an ask, when we had no track record to promote but those first eight businesses showed faith in the concept!

We also needed a main sponsor so we invited a number of local businesses to pitch for this role. There was a rich pool of candidates but, based on their pitch, the executive committee chose Pinney Talfourd Solicitors as our first main sponsor.

The application process went live in the Spring of 2018. We vigorously promoted the awards and applications started to come in. The sponsors commenced the judging process and the finalists were chosen.

We then had to organise the awards dinner; table plans, entertainment, menu choices, audio visual services, photos, certificates and trophies and awards.

In November we held the first black tie awards dinner at Hutton Mount Banqueting Suite, 170 people attended, including the finalists, their friends and family, the local Borough Council, the sponsors and numerous guests. The evening was a great success, we had pulled it off and that is where the story started.
